Social group classifications:

Well-established method of classifying people by class, which is based on occupation (not income) of the head of the household.

There are six social grades: A, B, C1, C2, D and E.

AB comprises the top two social grades:

A – Upper middle class. Higher managerial, administrative or professional and B – Middle class. Intermediate managerial, administrative or professional.

C1 is classified as: Lower middle class. Intermediate managerial, administrative or professional.

C2 is classified as: Skilled working class. Skilled manual.

DE comprises the two lowest social grades:

D – Working class. Semi-skilled or unskilled manual workers and

E – Those at the lowest levels of subsistence. State pensioners or widows (no other earner), casual or lowest grade workers.
